

MELJAC displays five of its collections at the Architect@Work Luxembourg trade show

On 25 and 26 April, MELJAC, a leader in high-end electrical fittings, will showcase its creations for the first time at Architect@Work in Luxembourg. The authorised reseller M&A Partners will present the Classic and Ellipse collections to the interior decorators and architects at the event, as well as solid brass, sealed floor sockets and the Pierrot tempered glass and Limoges porcelain collections. Each model is made in France and finished by hand in a refined style.

MELJAC: where quality meets aesthetics

Classique Collection

Switches, sockets, reading lights... visitors can discover a variety of MELJAC solutions alongside several examples of tailor-made projects, which truly showcase the brand's expertise.

They will appreciate the grandeur of the materials (brass, glass and porcelain) and the choice of colours, as well as the various formats and mechanism combinations.

Having taken part in this trade show in France, Germany, Switzerland, and the Netherlands more than 10 times, the company is consolidating its position in Luxembourg and continuing to expand internationally.

Distribution: MELJAC showrooms (Paris and Lyon - France) and authorised resellers in France and abroad (contact details on www.meljac.com/contact/).
