

Architect@Work Paris : MELJAC brings the art of jewellery to interiors with the Tournaire collection

MELJAC, the leader in luxury electrical fittings, presents its new bronze (brass) collection, the result of a collaboration with the jewellery creator Maison TOURNAIRE.

With 5 models with the jeweller's iconic motifs including 3 of them which can be adorned with precious stones, this range pushes the boundaries of interior design and genuine works of art that conceal functional objects.

■ Unparalleled expertise, endless potential for customisation

The partnership between the two French creators also offers endless opportunities for bespoke designs thanks to the unique combination of their respective expertise. The renowned quality of Meljac's luxury models naturally complements the state-of-the-art techniques of Maison Tournaire such as 3D modelling and lost wax casting. These techniques can be applied to produce any number of bespoke finishes, from the most subtle to the most extravagant, with complex shapes, rare metals, precious stones and any motifs available on request, achieving an unprecedented level of detail.

Each Meljac X Tournaire Décor switch is an eye-catching work of art that perfectly captures the spirit of its surroundings.

■ Bringing the art of jewellery to interiors

Three “high jewellery” switch models have been created, each drawing on the respective expertise of Maison Tournaire and Meljac. Adorned with more than 10 carats of diamonds for the “Alchimie” model, 5 carats of sapphires for the “Bas relief” model and 3 carats of sapphires and 1 carat of diamonds for the “Engrenages” model, these are the most exquisite switches in the world, bringing a uniquely dazzling touch to the most prestigious interiors.

- 3 toggle designs: Ellipse, Seattle ou JMA
- Thickness brass: 6 mm
- Size (for MELJAC backbox): 85x115 mm

About Maison TOURNAIRE

Maison Tournaire, founded in the Loire département in central France in the workshop of innovative self-taught jewellery designer Philippe Tournaire, has brought its inimitable, singular style to the French jewellery-making industry since 1973. That style is now in the hands of Mathieu Tournaire, who is committed to upholding the values passed down to him by his father. This family tradition – “constantly seeking innovation and new ideas, the piece that we’ve been waiting for” – is rooted in a unique skilled craftsmanship that combines the finest age-old jewellery-making techniques with cutting-edge technology. Top jewellery creator Maison Tournaire regularly joins forces with luxury brands and artists to produce objects and accessories that showcase the singular qualities on which it has built its reputation. It has been awarded the quality labels Maître Artisan d’Art, Joaillerie de France, Ateliers d’Art de France and Entreprise du Patrimoine Vivant and is currently developing its own ranges of objets d’art, decorative pieces and tableware with the “Tournaire Décor” brand. Its collaboration with Meljac is a prestigious illustration of this new venture.

About MELJAC

Created in 1995 by André Bousquet, the company (90 employees) designs high-quality electrical equipment using the finest materials.

With about 15 collections, MELJAC offers architects, decorators, electricians and private individuals a large range of options: switches, sockets, reading lights, casings for thermostats and home automation controls, etc. The brand is renowned for its bespoke creations. All products are ‘Origine France Garantie’ labeled. MELJAC is the first company in its business sector to obtain the EPV label (Living Heritage Company).

Its innovation and working methods are at the heart of its development, guaranteeing an optimum quality. Today the brand is available all over the world, with approximately 60 authorized dealers to help serve each their respective markets. The company has one subsidiary in the United States of America.
