

Meljac celebrates colour of the year 2024 with a “peach fuzz” finish for its switches

Meljac, the French manufacturer of luxury switches and sockets, is proud to present its tempered glass and brushed or painted brass models in the soft, velvety tones of peach fuzz, elected as one of 2024's colours of the year for interior design. The tint offers discreet sophistication with a touch of romanticism to create the perfect contemporary atmosphere.

Meljac's French-produced creations reflect a winning combination of state-of-the-art technologies and the irreplaceable human touch. Made of solid brass, they are uniquely attractive and long lasting, qualities on which the brand has built its reputation.
