

Press release – Paris, 15 January 2026

Meljac acquires FD Éclairage – Le spot français and expands its expertise in high-end lighting made in France

Meljac, France's leading manufacturer of luxury switches, is pleased to announce the acquisition of FD Éclairage – Le spot français, a small company based in Eure-et-Loir specialising in technical LED lighting solutions.

The acquisition, finalised on 1 July 2025, reflects Meljac's vision to expand its range by drawing on complementary expertise and supporting quality French industry.

FD Éclairage – Le spot français, established 46 years ago, produces French-designed and manufactured spotlights known for their reliability and durability, with a sustainable philosophy involving the use of series wiring to reduce environmental impact and facilitate maintenance.

An acquisition rooted in shared vision and values

The alignment between the companies reflects a mutual human and technical vision. On a visit to the FD Éclairage – Le spot français plant in Eure-et-Loir, the Meljac management team saw a company that shared Meljac's core values: skilled craftsmanship combined with industrial know-how, local production, and a strong commitment to French expertise.

Acquiring the company will enable Meljac to develop capabilities in lighting and expand its range of bespoke products, especially given the key role played by lighting in contemporary interior design projects, from dimmable LEDs to home automation. It will also enable FD to move its range upmarket, incorporating complementary products in line with Meljac's premium positioning.

This acquisition is a fantastic opportunity in strategic and human terms. FD shares our commitment to French production and locally based teams, product excellence, attention to detail and technical skill. Together, we will boost our product catalogues by combining our expertise, with FD's quality lighting feeding into Meljac's ranges and Meljac's high-end designs applied to FD's creations.

Jean-Michel Lagarde, Managing Director of Meljac

Continuity, stability and new prospects

FD Éclairage – Le spot français will retain its identity, production site and organisational setup. The teams will remain as they are but will have access to additional facilities, with Meljac's fleet of machines, tools and structure providing more flexibility, creativity and development capabilities.

This alignment with Meljac secures the future of FD Éclairage – Le spot français. It gives us the capabilities to develop our range, return to controlled growth and offer our clients ever higher quality solutions, while remaining true to our identity and our environmental and ecological approach.

Marie-Line David, Managing Director of FD Éclairage – Le spot français

Series-connected spotlights:
reduced power consumption

FD Éclairage – Le spot français will continue to offer reliable products, made in France, while gradually exploring new possibilities, such as specific products that meet emerging needs, more upmarket ranges with spotlights incorporating Meljac finishes, and access to new markets, especially abroad.

Shared ambition and commitment to French craftsmanship

At a time of strong international competition, Meljac and FD Éclairage – Le spot français are both committed to products made in France with a focus on quality, sustainability and innovation.

This acquisition will help preserve local employment, safeguard unique expertise and meet the growing needs of specifiers and customers when it comes to environmentally friendly, high-end technical solutions.

About FD Éclairage – Le spot français

The French company was established by Francis David in 1980 to develop the emerging technology of halogen lighting. It went on to specialise in series wiring, a solution that is both climate friendly and cost effective. The expertise accumulated by FD Éclairage – Le spot français over several decades has positioned it as a leading player in technical LED lighting for the professional market.

Its customisable, infinitely repairable products represent an environmentally sustainable solution. They can be divided into four categories: Hospitality & Home, Outdoor, Conservatories & Verandas and Decorative. They are known for their reliability and durability and are popular with electricians, design offices, interior designers and private customers alike. The company, with five staff members, is one of the only remaining manufacturers of LED spotlights in France. www.fdeclairage.com
